DISCLAIMER

The Central West Gippsland Division of General Practice takes no responsibility for incorrect information contained in this document. All information was correct at time of printing, to the best of our knowledge.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Traditional Owners

The Central West Gippsland Division of General Practice acknowledges the Gunnai Kurnai people as the traditional land owners in Gippsland and pay their respects to Elders past and present.

The Artist

Local Aboriginal artist Dale Hayes (Brayakoloong Art Group) was commissioned to create the artwork 'Kurnai Family Group'.

The Aboriginal Community

We wish to convey heartfelt thanks to the Aboriginal community members who have supported this project and provided information and valuable feedback. The name Gippsland Black Pages was borne out of a consultation process with Aboriginal community members, and specifically Karen Mobourne.

The Supporting Organisations

This resource was developed by Central West Gippsland Division of General Practice with general practitioners and the Aboriginal community in mind. Funding to support the development of this resource was also received by the Central and West Gippsland Sub Regional Close the Health Gap Consortium and the Australian Government Department of Health and Ageing under the Closing the Gap-improving Indigenous Access to Mainstream Primary Care Program. We acknowledge their generous contribution.

The Printing Company

Print and design was provided by LV Printers Traralgon.

The Project Developer

Consultation and project development was provided by Sharyn Thompson Consulting STC.
